Working hard to help you meet your public in effective and respected area forums

Area Forums and CAG Consultants

Like you CAG Consultants are committed to finding effective ways to make area forums work.

We offer a full range of skills and services to meet your needs and make sure that your area forums attract local people, run smoothly and provide useful information for policy and planning.

What we offer

Varied levels of service

You can choose the type and level of support you need based on what is best for you.

CAG Consultants can take the whole process and run it on your behalf, we can work with you to assess and develop your in house skills, or you might just need a one off service.

What ever you choose our services are tailored to what you need.

Variety of services

We offer a host of services that are delivered by specialist and have been designed to ensure your process works from start to finish.

Traditional Methods

Our experienced consultants can support or lead on group work, focus groups or help you to do it better

Electronic Methods

We also offer consultation methods to support area forums outside meetings. These include web sites, online consultation, web forums, texting and even twitter groups. Stakeholder recruitments and management - finding the best solutions for your community.

Marketing and publicity

Getting people there and celebrating success are key aspects of making area forums work – we offer an extensive range of marketing support for you. Our services run from designing and printing leaflets to communications strategy development.

Our Customers come back for more - Following a recent regional consultation 4NW said "CAG Consultants have been very flexible coming up with good ideas, guiding us and supporting us to come up with ideas too."
